

Know all men by these presents, that we, Horace P. Dunbar, Joseph Meyer, Peter Sontgenhauer, and G. W. Belden, are held and firmly bound, to pay to the State of Ohio the full sum of twelve thousand dollars, if default be made in the condition following:
The condition hereof is such, that whereas letters of administration with the will annexed on the estate of Andrew Whisler, deceased, were granted to the said Horace P. Dunbar, by the Probate Court, of Stark County, State of Ohio, on the fourteenth day of April A.D. 1854, now if the said Horace P. Dunbar, as administrator with the will annexed of the said Andrew Whisler, deceased, first, shall make and return to the said Court, on oath, within three months, a true inventory of all the moneys, goods, chattels, rights and credits of the said testator, which are by law to be administered, and which shall have come to his possession or knowledge; and also, if required by the said Court, an inventory of the real estate of said deceased; Secondly, shall administer according to law, and to the will of the said testator, all his goods, chattels, rights and credits, and the proceeds of all his real estate, that may be sold for the payment of his debts or legacies, which shall at any time, come to the possession of the said administrator or to the possession of any other person for him; and Thirdly, shall render upon oath, a just and true account of his administration within eighteen months, and at any other times, when required by the said Court, or the law, then shall this obligation be null and void, and not otherwise.

The State of Ohio, Stark County, ss. George Grubb administrator of the Estate of George Neary deceased, being sworn, Secondly The above bequests and provisions for my wife Catharine, are made and intended in lieu of, and by way of substitution for her right to dower in my real estate, her right to a distributive share of my personal property, her right to an allowance for one years support and her right to remain a year in the mansion house.

Eighthly It is my will that the proceeds arising from the sale of my real estate shall form a fund, the principal of which shall never be diminished or in anywise encroached upon, but which shall always be kept at interest well secured by mortgage upon real estate; and when said fund, by the addition of one half of the interest arising from said principal to such part thereof as may not be necessary for the comfortable support and maintenance of my wife Catharine as aforesaid during the widowhood of my wife as aforesaid, and by the addition of the whole of the interest arising therefrom after the subsequent marriage or death of my wife, shall, in the estimation of my trustee have become sufficiently large for that purpose it is my will that the yearly interest arising from said fund be applied by my trustee to the education of colored children, by which I mean such children in whole or in part of Negro blood. And in case any opportunity or opportunity should hereafter occur to unite the fund hereby bequeathed with another fund or funds given or bequeathed for similar purposes, it is my will that my trustee for the time being have power to unite the fund hereby bequeathed with such other fund or funds, upon such terms and conditions as may to him seem best fitted to carry out the objects and purposes of this devise. And should the fund hereby devised, by the addition of other funds or otherwise ever become sufficiently large for that purpose, it is my preference that a manual labor labor school upon a similar footing to the charity school of Fendal as at present conducted, should be established and supported by said fund, for the benefit of colored children, but this preference is not designed to be binding or controlling upon my trustee.

Ninthly I hereby authorize my executor hereinafter named to execute and deliver deeds of conveyance for my real estate when sold, and should any right of way or other franchise through or concerning any real estate be required by any railroad or other corporation or person, or any damages be done to said real estate before the same shall have been sold by my executor as hereinbefore provided, my executor is hereby authorized to convey said right of way or other franchise, or settle and compound such damages upon such terms as may be just and reasonable.

Tenthly I hereby constitute and appoint my friend George C. Hale to be the executor of this my last will and testament, and also to be the trustee, to take charge of and manage the trust fund hereby devised in the manner and for the purposes herein specified. And I hereby revoke and cancel all former wills and codicils by me made. Witness my signature this twenty sixth day of January eighteen hundred and fifty four.

Executed in our presence, by John Hall, whom we heard acknowledge the above signature, to be his, this twenty sixth day of January 1854
Thos. C. Shreve Andrew Bollinger

On the day of March, in the year eighteen hundred and fifty four, the last will and testament of John Hall deceased, was brought into the Probate Court, within and for the county of Clark, and State of Ohio, and the witnesses to said will, viz: Thomas C. Shreve, and Andrew Bollinger, came before said Court, and being first duly sworn, did depose and say, that said testator subscribed said will at the end thereof, and in presence of said witnesses, that they subscribed said will as witnesses, in presence of said testator, and at his request. And that said testator, at the time of executing said will, was of full age, of sound mind and memory, and not under any restraint. All which testimony was by said Court, reduced to writing and filed, and it appearing that said will was duly executed, attested, and proved as aforesaid the same was admitted to Probate.

Michael Engle's Estate

The last will and testament of Michael Engle, of the township of Genaking in the County of Clark, O.

I Michael Engle considering the uncertainty of this mortal life, and being of sound mind and memory, do make and publish this my last will and testament, in manner and form following (that is to say)

First: I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Sarah, all my real estate as long as she shall live, and after my funeral expenses and all my lawful debts are paid, I give and bequeath all my property both real and personal unto my children to be divided equally among them except my daughter Catharine Vannover, deceased, therefore it is my will that her share shall fall unto John Vannover the heir of my said daughter Catharine. But my will is, that my daughter Catharines share shall be reserved until her son John shall arrive at the age of twenty one years.

And further it is my will that my son Isaac, and my son-in-law Barney Goke shall be executor of my estate after my decease.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this fourth day of March, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and fifty four
Michael Engle

Henry Helms Will

I Henry Helms of Jackson township, Stark County Ohio, being of sound and disposing mind, and memory, do make and publish this my last will and testament, as follows.

1st It is my will that all my funeral expenses and just debts be fully paid, as soon after my decease as possible, out of the first moneys that shall come into the hands of my executor from any portion of my estate real or personal, also I direct that any personal property that I may have, at the time of my death, shall be appraised and disposed of, or sold by my executor agreeably to the laws then in force in the State of Ohio for the settlement of intestate estates. I also direct that all the real estate of which I shall die seized, or possessed, shall be sold by my executor, by public auction on the premises, for current money, or cash credit, and the amount thereof received in such manner as is usual in like cases to insure the full and punctual payments thereof, and to effectuate this my intention I do hereby, next in my executor, full power and authority at any time, to dispose of my real estate in fee simple, or a portion of year or otherwise, in as full and large a manner in every respect as I could myself do if living.

I give and bequeath to my wife Elizabeth Helms in lieu of her dower the sum of four hundred dollars, also such of my personal property as she may select, not exceeding fifty dollars in value. And the net proceeds of my estate real and personal, not hereinbefore disposed of, I bequeath to my children and grand children (hereinafter to) and to their legal representatives, and shall be distributed to them by my executor as follows to wit: one tenth part thereof to my son George Helms, another one tenth part thereof in equal proportions to the four children of my son Henry Helms deceased, another one tenth part thereof to my son John Helms, another one tenth part thereof to my son Daniel Helms, another one tenth part thereof to my son Joseph Helms, another one tenth part thereof to my daughter Susan Helms, another one tenth part thereof in equal proportions to the four children of my deceased daughter Catherine Stough, another one tenth part thereof to my daughter Elizabeth Andrews, another one tenth part thereof to my son Michael Helms. And the remaining one tenth part thereof I dispose of as follows, one third part of said remaining tenth I give and bequeath to Isabella Helms, daughter of my son Adam Helms, and the remaining two thirds of said tenth, I hereby direct my executor to pay on claims, to such of the creditors of said Adam Helms as he may deem proper, on the presentation of the same, and the balance of said two thirds (if any) after paying such claims, shall be paid to the same legatee in the same proportions as the first nine tenths of the proceeds of my estate aforesaid provided however, that if said Adam Helms shall at any time, before my executor and demand it, it is my will, and I hereby direct that whatever amount of the said two thirds of the last mentioned one tenth may remain for distribution in the hands of my executor shall be paid to him, the said Adam Helms.

And I do hereby constitute and appoint Henry Backel, executor of this my last will and testament.

Witness my signature, the seventh day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty four.
